

IFC Court Puts 4 Fraternities on Probation

Auction Highlights 'Chest' Campaign

Thermometer In Outer Quad Marks Goal

Today marks the second day of our week-long campaign for the Campus Chest Drive, Joan Uhlrich, chairman of the committee, stated.

"The mercury in the thermometer in the Outer Quad will rise as the donations come in, so everyone can watch our progress," Miss Uhlrich said in an interview today.

The highlight of the drive will be a "Faculty Auction" Wednesday at 12 p.m. in the Outer Quad. Living groups, sororities and fraternities will have an opportunity to bid on their favorite teacher, and the winning bid will win the privilege of having the teacher "hash" one night at that group's house for dinner.

"Alpha Phi, Sigma Kappa and Gamma Phi Beta have volunteered their services in supporting the campaign. They will hold a "Car Wash" on Thursday from 12 noon to 5 p.m. at the Gamma Phi house. Price is 50 cents per car," Joan said.

"We have approximately 480 personal solicitors, so students may expect to be contacted this week for contributions or to sign pledge cards," Don Betando, solicitations chairman reported in a recent interview.

Celia Cross will be stationed in the Student Union from 4 to 4:30 p.m. every day this week to accept contributions, Betando reported.

Home Ec Clubs Will Give Tea, Fashion Show

Eta Epsilon, home ec social group, and Delta Nu Theta, home ec honor society, join forces this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock to present their annual Spring Fashion Show and Tea in the Home Economics Building.

Tickets for the afternoon event may be purchased from Nancy Crowell, ticket chairman.

The theme for the show this year will be "Fashion News from the Islands." Fashions will be supplied by the Simplicity Pattern Co. under the guidance of their fashion coordinator, Miss Olive Berry.

Students modeling are Vivian Spurrier, Georgia Chalich, Betty Sawyer, Jo Ann Vick, Margaret Mitchell, Alice Lassen, Barbara Kershaw, Helena Sommerhalder.

Shields Gather

Spartan Shields, sophomore men's honorary society, will hold its first rush function of the year tonight at 7 o'clock in the Student Union, according to Dave Hill, former president.

Student Court To Open Doors

Student Court will open its doors to all students at 3:30 p.m. today in the Student Union to hold a special "question and answer" period, according to Stan Croonquist, chief justice.

Purpose of the session, Croonquist said, is to clear up any questions students may have about elections and how Student Court handles arrangements.

All petitions for candidates in the May 5-6 elections must be in the Student Union by 4 p.m. today, Croonquist emphasized.

Diane Martinsen, court junior justice, corrected the statement that Joan Ereno, who had applied for female representative at large, was disqualified from receiving a petition. Miss Ereno withdrew her application, Miss Martinsen said.

Freshmen Collect Paper for Drive

Rain did not prevent the Freshman Class from picking up paper yesterday in Rosemary Gardens. The city-wide paper drive, which began yesterday and will continue through Friday, will continue as planned. Don Ryan, freshman president said yesterday.

"Nothing can dampen the spirit of the freshmen participating in the drive," Ryan continued, "not even rain."

Today the freshmen will pick up paper in Bascom Gardens and Kaiser Tract.

Ryan asked at the class meeting yesterday for volunteers to help tie papers in the afternoons this week. He told the freshmen, "Don't let up now; if we all get behind the drive it can't help but be a success."

Residents who wish their papers picked up and do not live in the collection areas, Rose Garden area, Backesto Park and East San Jose, should call the Student Union, CY 2-7393, and leave their address.

PROM 'FINANCIAL FLOP'

The Junior Prom was pronounced a social success but a financial flop as the cost was added up at the Junior class meeting yesterday afternoon. Thirty-four juniors were on hand to hear the dismal news. Don Abinante, co-chairman of the Prom, reported that more than 200 bids were sold. He estimated that the loss will run somewhere between $130 and $150 when the final tabulations are in.

Abinante said that some of the bids haven't been turned in yet. Also some of the bills haven't been received by the class.

PRC To Work On 'Litter-bug'

New plans of the litter-bug committee will be discussed today at the Public Relations Committee meeting in Room 25 at 3:30 p.m., according to Jan Weter, secretary.

Lunch tables and trash bins will be put up later this week on the drill field and other parts of campus by Alpha Phi Omega, service fraternity, as part of a campaign to keep students from throwing their trash on private lawns near the campus. Posters also will be put up, according to Joe Vallenari, head of the litter-bug committee.

Council will take a poll tomorrow to decide the reasons for student apathy during elections, according to Al Behr, sophomore class president. The poll will be taken in as many 10:30 a.m. classes as possible.

The council also decided on June 3 as the date for the spring Frosh-Soph Mixer, which will be held at Adobe Creek Lodge.

After regular meeting the council adjourned into three separate committees, activities, financial and publicity.

SENIORS PLAN BOOK

Pat Waddell, chairman of the Senior Booklet Committee, reported at yesterday's Senior class meeting that her committee now is ready to begin planning the booklet.

Miss Waddell related that the booklet will be printed on glossy paper and will have at least 20 pages.

Also during the meeting, Pat Spooner, class president, emphasized that attendance at Senior Briefing sessions will be taken into account in determining whether a plus or minus grade is given. He said that attendance at the lectures has not been as good as it should be.

Moroccan Expert To Speak Tonight

Rom Landau, international authority on Morocco, will unravel some of the mystery behind the scenes in French North Africa tonight in the Concert Hall at 8 o'clock.

"Must French North Africa Become a Second Indochina?" is the topic tonight in the first of three lectures sponsored by the College Lecture Committee. He will be introduced by President John T. Wahlquist.

"In French Morocco the natives are not permitted to publish a single paper of their own," so states Landau in his recent article in The Reporter.

He indicated in this article that France is playing into the hands of General Franco and perhaps the hands of the Soviet Union by their oppressive actions toward the Moroccans.

Owen Hands Donates Motor

A new 1955 Dodge V-8 engine and "Powerflyte" transmission was donated to the Industrial Arts Department yesterday by Owen F. Hands, owner of Hands Motor Company of San Jose.

Receiving the gift for the college was Robert P. Johnson, I.A. auto mechanics instructor, who will use the engine for demonstration and familiarization purposes in his auto mechanics courses.

IFC 'No Beer' Regulation Is Basis of Action

Four fraternities were placed on probation until the end of 1955-56 fall semester in the first actions of the Inter-Fraternity Council Court last week following initial violations of the "dry rushing" provision of the rushing rules and regulations code. A fine of $100 was included in the sentences of two organizations.

Fraternities involved were Sigma Chi, Phi Sigma Kappa, Kappa Alpha and Delta Sigma Phi, according to Robert Martin, associate dean of students.

Phi Sigma Kappa and Delta Sigma Phi sustained the $100 fines which, according to the rulings, will go to the Campus Chest drive. Kappa Alpha was suspended from participation in all IFC activities, except the Spring Sing and the Achievement Dinner, for the balance of the quarter.

Violations stemmed from the rush season in which alcoholic beverages were consumed by members and rushees at what the court determined were rush functions. Three were held at a San Jose restaurant, one at a fraternity house and one at Alum Rock Park.

Commenting on the action, Dean Martin said, "I'm sure that the court made decisions that it feels will be best for the school, the fraternities and the fraternity system as a whole."

In making the rulings, the five-man court noted that additional violations of college or IFC regulations would "necessitate more severe action by the court."

The rulings may be appealed to the Fraternity-Sorority Governing Board, Dean Martin indicated.

Jesson To Give Organ Recital Tonight at 8:15

Organist Richard Jesson, associate professor of music, will give his first public recital in this city tonight in Trinity Episcopal Church at Second and St. John streets. The 8:15 p.m. recital is being sponsored by the SJS Music Department.

Jesson is a native of Mansfield, Ohio, where he played his first organ recital at the age of 11. He was 14 when he became a church organist, a post which he held for the next eight years.

After being graduated with honors from Oberlin Conservatory, where he majored in organ with George Otto Lillich, he joined the faculty of Kansas State College at Manhattan, Kansas.

Homecoming Idea Deadline Today

Students with suggested themes for next fall's homecoming celebration must submit them to the Homecoming Committee before its meeting today at 1:30 p.m. in the Student Union, according to Al Figueira, publicity chairman.

Ideas can be addressed to the committee and left in box "H" in the Student Union, he explained. The suggestions must be original, appropriate to the occasion and must stimulate big game spirit, he said.

Homecoming will be in connection with the SJS-College of the Pacific football game, Oct. 22.

Sucker Sale Today

An AWS sucker sale, proceeds to go to Campus Chest, will be held on campus today and Thursday, according to Audrey Horsford, publicity chairman.

Suckers will be on sale in the Library Arch and by AWS members on all parts of the campus.

Time for Tea and Fashions

MEMBERS OF Eta Epsilon and Delta Nu Theta, home ec groups, pause for a "spot of tea" as they make final preparations for the annual Spring Fashion Show and Tea to be held this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Painting Exhibited

Campus Group Has Art Display

Trying to figure out what to give your Mom for Mother's Day? Why don't you drop by the library and take a look at the exhibit cases, who knows, maybe one of the paintings on display there is just what you had in mind.

All of the paintings, which include water colors and wood cuts, will be for sale on a "first come, first served basis," according to Jimmie Long, president of Delta Phi Delta, national honorary art fraternity, which is sponsoring the exhibit.

Members of the fraternity whose works are on display include Jim

Olsen, Kay Siegfried, Jane Cauhape, Carla Powell, Jan Good and Miss Long.

All but 20 per cent of the money collected will go to the individual artist, Miss Long said. The 20 per cent will go to the fraternity for handling expenses.

The exhibit will run until May 13, according to Miss Maude Coleman, librarian. The Whitman collection, owned by Dr. Esther Shephard and O. E. Goodale will be on display May 14.

Movie Rate Card Sale Will Continue

Sale of Student Rate Theater Cards for 50 cents each continue in the Graduate Manager's Office. By 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon 1404 cards had been sold. Purchase of the cards entitle SJS students to reduced prices at downtown theaters. Revenue from the cards is divided evenly among the theaters and the Student Union Fund.

All Groups Get Invitations To Council

Invitations to 50 campus organizations and their faculty advisers have been issued for the Council of Academic Societies' meeting, Wednesday in B-23 at 7:30 p.m.

All organizations interested in joining the council are invited to be present at the meeting, according to Art Winterling, president of the society.

The newly-formed council received recognition from the administration and deans early this quarter. "Since that time, the council has been forming policies and procedures to be followed in the future organization," Winterling stated.

1956 Revelries Scripts Due, Weiss Warns

Deadline to submit scripts for the 1956 Spartan Revelries will be Friday at 3:30 p.m. in the Student Union, according to Joy Weiss, Revelries Board chairman.

Scripts submitted to the Revelries Board must contain a brief outline of the plot. A list of all people who will work with the producer on sets, directing, costumes, and choreography, should also be included.

Plans Made By Committee

The Library Committee has been kept busy this quarter working out a proposed library program, according to Miss Joyce Backus, head librarian and chairman of the committee.

Designed primarily to assure library service which is immediately geared to the needs of the college, the program is based on physical planning, building decisions and schedules of library facilities.

Such a program involves a great deal of planning, Miss Backus said, but some conclusions should be reached at the next meeting.

Plane Is Painted

The Flying 20 Club's Taylorcraft is flying with a brand new paint job, according to Pete Sammot, club president. There is still a little trimmings to be done on the plane, but the Flying 20 is flying again, said Sammot.

Dr. Duncan Invited

Dr. Carl D. Duncan, chairman of the Natural Science Division, has been invited by the California State Department of Public Health to the dedication of a new building in Berkeley, Thursday.

Thrust and Parry

More Patriotism?

Dear ASB 4312:

The April 22 Spartan Daily contained a letter written by you, a letter with which I disagree. Its contents involve the question of whether an individual remaining seated, during the passing of the national standard or the playing of the national anthem, is or is not being patriotic.

This reader's first reaction was to think that you were defending the actions of the individuals concerned; this was rejected as your letter soon showed you had a deeper objective. I then thought you were attacking the editorial on the basis of a definition of the word "patriotism"; this possibility was brushed aside as being too petty. The third and final thought to occur was that the attack actually represented a defense of the principles governing the actions of the seated. If this is the case, I agree wholeheartedly; the choice to stand or remain seated is theirs!

However, devotion to an institution, be it a club, group, religion or government, includes not only discharging of obligations and conforming to rules, but also a respect for the traditions of that institution. These traditions should not be observed because they are traditions, but out of respect for what they represent.

It is agreed that such traditions shouldn't be forced on an individual, but don't you believe that if a person "had patriotism" the traditions of this country wouldn't have to be pointed out to him? This reader believes that the observance of such traditions may not be patriotism, but could certainly be compared to a barometer of patriotism. If you agree, please don't be too harsh on an editor who reported a low pressure reading in the San Jose State College area.

Henry K. Lum, ASB 5565

*Such an occurrence during the playing of the national anthem has not been mentioned by you, but also has happened.

Bronzan Greets 97 Gridiron Hopefuls

Coach Bob Bronzan welcomed 97 gridiron hopefuls, including 17 lettermen, to the first day of spring football practice yesterday, at the Spartan practice field.

Yesterday's workout was the first of five scheduled for this week and 20 slated for the spring. Bronzan and his assistants, Bill Perry and Gene Menges, are faced with the problem of finding replacements for the 13 lettermen who are not returning from last year's squad. The loss has left the Spartans without experienced depth at the quarterback, fullback and end positions.

Fullback Joe Ulm is slated to return to practice after having missed most of last season because of a broken collarbone. The plunger from Sacramento was injured in the second play of the season.

Lettermen returning include Ends Clarence Wessman, Leon O'Neill and Bob Arends; Tackles Jack Adams, Ken Coronado, Bob Light and Al Severino; Guards Jim Hughes, Jim Nakagawa, Tom Powers, Hank Seacock and Eli Gardiner; Centers Jerry Ruse, Jim Hague and John Perkins and Halfback Mel Soong.

Letterman Quarterback Tony Teresa and Halfbacks Bill Rahming and Stan Beasley are members of the Spartan baseball team and will not report until the third week of practice.

DESPITE THE cold and a slight drizzle, more than 90 grid aspirants turned out to greet Coach Bob Bronzan and his aides on the first day of spring football drills yesterday. As shown above the boys did plenty of warming up to prevent possible injuries due to the cold weather. The day was spent concentrating on fundamentals.

Golf, Tennis Teams Meet SFS Gators

Spartan netters and golfers will challenge the San Francisco State Gators in San Francisco today. The netters are scheduled to play at 2 p.m. while the golfers tee off on the Sharp Park course at 1 p.m.

The tennis team will be attempting to snap their two match losing streak. They have a five win, four loss record for the season.

Coach Walt McPherson's golfers are fresh from taking second place in the annual Northern California Intercollegiate tournament and will be going for their tenth win of the season against two losses.

Tennis Coach Hugh Mumby has named Jack Darrah, Cory Reese, Brick Fena, Bob Bell, Harry Bruhn and Joe Norton to face the Gators.

Cross Elected

Jay Cross, Spartan swimming team breaststroker, was elected captain of next year's swimming team by his teammates yesterday.

Willie Steele holds the all-time SJS broad jump mark of 25 ft. 7 in., set in 1942.

Cindermen Show Improvement

The SJS trackmen continued to show improvement, as they chalked up three new school records while defeating the Santa Clara Youth Center and the Olympic Club in a triangular meet Saturday at Spartan Field. It was their sixth straight win of the season.

Mickey Maramonte turned in the second best time by a collegian this year by running the low hurdles in 23.3 seconds. This broke the school record of 23.5 seconds, held jointly by Maramonte and ex-Spartan Jim Gillespie, and shattered the meet records against both clubs. In addition Maramonte won the century in 9.8 seconds.

Billy Joe Wright extended his own mark in the shot put by tossing the ball 52 ft. 5 in., which also set a new meet record. Ed Kreyenhagen set a new school and meet record against both clubs by doing 14.5 over the high barriers. His time tied the Spartan Field mark.

Lack of competition, cold air and a turned ankle spoiled possible world record tries by Lon Spurrier and Bud Held of the Olympic Club. Spurrier's Spartan Field record time of 1:0.1 in the half-mile was well over "To spend too much time in studies is sloth,"—Bacon.

Time wasted, in existence; used, is life.—Young.

his world record of 1:47.5, set three weeks ago at Berkeley.

Held turned an ankle on his first javelin toss, but broke his own Spartan Field record on his last throw with a heave of 249 ft. 5 in.

Harry Wade pleased Coach Bud Winter as he almost nipped Maramonte in a tremendous finish in the 100-yd. dash. Wade then went on to win the 220 in the good time of 21.6 seconds. The other SJS win came in the mile relay, where the Spartan team of Wade, Gene Antone, Val Daniels and Jack Albani ran unopposed.

Future Spartan track hopes suffered a blow when Ray Goodwin suffered a groin injury. Goodwin got a second in the board jump with a leap of 23 ft. 5 in., and placed third in the high jump at 6 ft. 2.3/8 in.

Members of the Death Valley session of the West Coast Nature School will hold a reunion tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock in the Student Union, according to Jean Hird, secretary of the school.

"Slides and snaps of Death Valley activities will be shown," says Miss Hird. "Skits on members of the session and community singing are planned for tomorrow evening."

"All members should attend the reunion," Miss Hird reminds. "Refreshments will be served."
